

Fasula Family Statement

“We are deeply saddened by the loss of John who was a tremendous father and husband, and died heroically, saving a fellow human being’s life, which was just like him. We are searching for the truth and are grateful to our legal system that is allowing our attorneys to determine the circumstances that caused John’s death.”